

Course Syllabus

Course Title: Risk and Quality Management

Course Description:

Analyze and apply processes, planning, identification, analysis, response, monitoring, contingency planning, tools, techniques and implementation for both risk and quality management issues.

Course Objectives:

1. Apply risk management processes, planning, identification analysis, response, contingency planning, monitoring/control and implementation
2. Apply quality management principles, processes, management, tools, techniques, implementation, monitoring and control

Lesson Plan – by week or session

Session 1: Introductions and syllabus. Student Data Forms.

Risk management processes

Session 2: Contingency planning and response

Identification analysis

Session 3: Quality management principles and processes

Session 4: Quality management implementation, monitoring and control

Student Evaluation of Instruction